A STRONG VOICE FOR YOU

Rick and his wife Lynn (Early) with their two boys Ricky & Liam, students at Tatnuck Magnet School. Rick is the son of Two Worcester Public Teachers, Frederick and Patricia Rushton

Rick's Priorities for Worcester

- ✓ Ensure the revaluation process for Residential Property Values is fair for all residents.
- ✓ Establish an "Innovation Zone" to attract developers in high growth industries such as Life Sciences, Video Technology and Healthcare to drive development in underutilized areas in Worcester.
- ✓ Develop a comprehensive plan to upgrade Worcester Public School infrastructure with focus on the Burncoat, Doherty, Nelson Place and South facilities. Fund Science and Technology in the classroom.
- ✓ Secure a Bookmobile to be used for our children and Senior Citizens.

Rick's Leadership for Worcester

- ★ Led the charge to recruit Pfizer igniting this Fortune 500 company to place the Pfizer Center for Therapeutic Innovation in Worcester.
- ★ Supported Worcester's major street and sidewalk repavement project.
- ★ Backed policing initiatives such as neighborhood crime watches and the Summer Impact Division.
- ★ Helped secure funding to revitalize Worcester East Middle's Health/Occupational Science track and Forest Grove's Engineering track.
- ★ Revamped the Tax Incremental Financing (TIF) process that brought greater scrutiny and accountability to companies seeking TIFs.

Rick's Cost Saving Initiative

- ★ Initiated over 4 million in savings for city taxpayers by pushing to buy the City's electricity in bulk.
- ★ Backed the City Manager's Fiscal Plan to secure City reserves resulting in the highest bond rating in Worcester's recent history.
- ★ Advocated change in administration of City's workers' compensation claims resulting in controlling costs.
